If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, St Edward's Church of England Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by raising the concern or complaint in person, by telephone or in writing to the head of centre.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must submit in writing or via email a complaints and appeals form (forms are available upon request from the exams officer).

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within 4 working weeks.

Appeals

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must submit in writing or via email a complaints and appeals form (forms are available upon request from the exams officer).

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within 7 calendar days.
